Taking the National Day Quiz on StayTeen.org

National Day to Prevent Teen Pregnancy

Too many teens think “It can’t happen to me” when it comes to pregnancy or sexually transmitted infections. The purpose of National Day is to help teens understand that it can happen to them! When teens begin to make choices about sexual activity, they must think about consequences and responsibilities before they make those potentially life-altering decisions.

APPI hopes the quiz will help teens think before they act.

WEST VIRGINIA teens are encouraged to go to The National Campaign's teen website—StayTeen.org—and take a short, scenario-based quiz. In 2008, more than 300,000 people took the National Day Quiz—up from 75,000 in 2002.

Let’s make it 500,000 this year!
