

Need Help?

The West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources (WVDHHR) does not discriminate on the basis of disability in admission to, access to, or operations of its programs, services, or activities. WVDHHR does not discriminate on the basis of disability in its hiring or employment practices.

If you have a learning disability, or a physical or mental condition, you may have legal rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

If the ADA applies to you, then:

If you can't do something we asked you to do,

- We can help you do it, or
- We can change what you have to do.

Here are some of the ways we can help:

- We can call or visit if you are not able to come to our office.
- We can tell you what our letters mean.
- We can help you to appeal.
- If you need some other kind of help, ask us.

If you have questions or complaints or if you want to talk about whether you have a disability, please contact the State ADA coordinator at:
