Current – Permanent Resident Card was introduced in December 1997. Noticeable differences on the front of the card include: Change of card title from Resident Alien Card to Permanent Resident Card, a three line machine readable zone and a hologram.

How to Read an Amnesty Alien's I - 551

The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (IRCA) created two "amnesty" programs to enable undocumented aliens to legalize their status. The section 245A program legalized aliens unlawfully in the U.S. prior to January 1, 1982. The section 210 program, also called the SAW program, legalized certain farm workers. Aliens who legalize their status under IRCA are issued I - 551 cards after final adjustment to lawful permanent resident (LPR) status.

Ordinarily, the I - 551 issued to amnesty aliens were a pinkish color and had no expiration date (the "old card" example below.) The INS then began issuing a salmon-colored I - 551 with the person's name, date of birth, alien number, and an expiration date. The salmon card expires 10 years after it is issued. After 10 years, the person does not automatically lose his or her status; instead, he or she must simply renew the card.

|--|--|
| A. "TEMP RES ADJ DATE" - month, day and year when the person became a temporary resident (date on the example is November 16, 1876.) This is backdated to the date the alien filed for temporary residency. Add 5 years to calculate when the disqualification for receipt of certain benefits ends. If there is not TEMP RES ADJ DATE line, the person did not get LPR status through amnesty.. | C. Data adjusted to LPR status -
On new card: year, month, day (In example: May 8, 1990)
On old card: month, day, year (In example: February 18, 1989) Use this date to calculate when the person will be eligible for naturalization. |
| B. Code that tells whether the person legalized status under the 245A or the 210 SAW program. 245A - codes W16, W26, or W36
210/SAWs - code S16 or S26 | An LPR is eligible for naturalization five years after being granted LPR status (three years if married to a U.S. citizen.) For §245A amnesty aliens, this date is calculated from the date the alien applied for permanent resident status. For SAWs, it dates from either December 1, 1989 or December 1, 1990. The application for naturalization can be submitted three months before the five-year (or three-year) period expires. |

I - 551

Stamp in Foreign Passport: When an alien is first admitted to the United States as an LPR, his or her passport is tamped with temporary proof of LPR status. This stamp will have an expiration date. This is proof of admission as a lawful permanent resident.

Los Angeles, CA 90012

Dear

This refers to your Request for Asylum in the United States.

I have concluded, upon consultation with the Bureau of Human rights and Humanitarian Affairs, Department of State, that you have established a well-founded fear of persecution upon return to your homeland. Therefore, in accordance with section 208(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, your request for Asylum in the United States is granted as of Feb 02 1990.

Your asylum status may be terminated if it is subsequently determined you are no longer a refugee within the meaning of section 101(a) (42) (A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, or that you pose a danger to the community or to the security of the United States.

You are authorized to remain in the United States until FEB 01 1991 at which time you must arrange to be interviewed to determine your continuing eligibility for asylum. Employment is authorized during this period. If you plan to depart the United States, it will be necessary for you to obtain prior permission to return.

You may apply for permanent residence under section 209(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act upon being physically present in the United States for at least one year after asylum was granted.

Please keep this office informed of any change in your address.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Moschorak

Robert M. Moschorak
Acting District Director
