

18.4 BENEFIT PROGRAMS

To receive WV WORKS, Medicaid, or Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits, an individual applying must be a resident of the United States as a citizen or a legal alien and meet eligibility requirements for each program. Among those ineligible are alien visitors, tourists, diplomats and students who enter the United States temporarily with no intention of abandoning their residence in a foreign country.

An illegal or ineligible alien residing in the United States who requires emergency medical care may qualify for Medicaid for the length of time medically required to avert the medical emergency. See Section 18.9.

NOTE: At the time of application an alien applies for SNAP benefits and WV WORKS benefits, the Worker must send a copy of their green card, front and back, to the DFA SAVE Coordinator at the time of application.

A. SNAP BENEFITS

A person must be a United States citizen, a national of the United States, or an eligible alien, (qualified alien) to qualify.

1. Categories Eligible For SNAP Benefits

A qualified alien for SNAP benefits is in one of the following categories, as determined by the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

- Lawfully admitted for Permanent Residence (LPR) in the United States, who has a green card and has been in the United States for 5 years with this status. This category also includes Amerasian immigrants as defined under section 584 of the Foreign Operations, Export Financing and Related Programs Appropriations Act of 1988;
- Granted asylum under section 208 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA);
- Refugee admitted to the United States under section 207 of the INA;
- Deportation is being withheld under section 243(h) of the INA as in effect before 4/1/97, or removal is withheld under section 241(b)(3) of the INA;

- Cuban or Haitian entrant under section 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980;
- Under certain circumstances, a battered immigrant spouse, battered immigrant child, immigrant parent of a battered child or an immigrant child of a battered parent with a petition pending under 204(a)(1)(A) or (B) or 244(a)(3) of the INA; or
- Certain Hmong or Highland locations (and spouse and children).

2. Categories Eligible For SNAP Benefits Indefinitely

To receive SNAP benefits, qualified aliens must also meet one of the following conditions and are either eligible indefinitely or limited to a maximum of 7 years.

- An LPR who can be credited with 40 qualifying quarters of work under the Social Security system, credits may be earned individually, in combination with a spouse and in some circumstances a parent;
- An elderly individual who was born on or before August 22, 1931 and who was lawfully residing in the United States on August 22, 1996;
- Qualified alien children under 18 are eligible without a waiting period regardless of when they entered the United States. Continued eligibility will be reviewed once the alien reaches the age of 18;
- Blind or disabled individuals receiving benefits or assistance for their condition as defined under section 3(r) of the Food and Nutrition Act regardless of when they entered the United States
- Beginning on April 1, 2003, an individual who has lived in the United States as a qualified alien for 5 years from the date on entry; or
- An individual who is lawfully residing in a State and is on active duty other than for training in the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard. This does not include full-time National Guard or is an honorably discharged veteran whose discharge is not because of alien status. A discharge "Under Honorable Conditions" does not meet this requirement. This category includes the spouse or surviving spouse who has not remarried or unmarried dependent children of these individuals.

3. Qualified Alien Limits Removed

The following qualified aliens no longer have the 7 year limit on the SNAP benefits. Therefore, these qualified aliens are allowed to participate in the SNAP benefit indefinitely. This was effective April 1, 2003 as long as all other eligibility requirements are met.

- A refugee admitted under section 207 of the INA (including immigrants who have been certified by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to be victims of a severe form of trafficking in persons in accordance with the Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000 (P.L. 106-386)
- Asylee granted asylum under section 208 of the INA
- An individual whose deportation was withheld under section 243(h) or whose removal withheld under section 241(b)(3) of the INA
- A Cuban or Haitian entrant under section 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980
- An Amerasian immigrant under section 584 of the Foreign Operations, Export Financing and Related Programs Appropriations Act of 1988.

4. Ineligible Aliens

All others are ineligible aliens and are prohibited from receiving SNAP benefits. These include:

- Visitors, tourists, students and diplomats who lawfully reside in the United States in a non-qualified status and are not exempt from the immigrant restrictions;
- Undocumented immigrants such as individuals who entered the country as temporary residents and overstayed their visa or who entered without a visa;
- Aliens who have applied for eligible status but who have not been approved. An exception is battered spouses and children with a military connection; and

Aliens, Refugees and Citizenship

- Aliens whose status is questionable or unverified; and
- The children of any of these individuals even those under the age of 18.
- Those admitted under color of law.

NOTE: When the Worker believes that any member of a household applying for benefits is ineligible to receive SNAP benefits because the member is present in the United States in violation of the law, he must report this immediately in writing to the Division of Family Assistance (DFA) SAVE Coordinator. The memorandum must include the name of the alien involved, case name, address, the reason the Worker believes the client is an illegal alien, and copies of any INS documents that have been presented. The SAVE Coordinator forwards this information to INS. The local office receives a copy of the letter sent to INS.

The Worker must have reason to believe the household contains an illegal alien when:

- Any household member or the authorized representative states that illegal aliens are present in the household, INS documents presented by the AG are determined to be forged; or
- A formal order of deportation is presented by an AG member during the eligibility determination process. When the Worker determined that a household member cannot be included in the AG because he is an ineligible alien. The Worker must following the procedure described above for reporting the illegal alien to the SAVE Coordinator if the illegal alien applies for benefits, even if the application is withdrawn.

B. WV WORKS

A person must be a United States Citizen, United States National, or an Eligible Alien qualified to receive benefits.

1. Eligible Alien

An eligible alien must meet one of the following criteria:

- An alien who is lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and was admitted before August 22, 1996;
- An alien who is granted asylum under section 208-INA, eligible for five years from entry to United States;

Aliens, Refugees and Citizenship

- A refugee who is admitted to the United States under section 207-INA including immigrants who have been certified by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to be victims of a severe form of trafficking in persons in accordance with the victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000, P.L.106-386, eligible for five years from entry to United States;
- An alien whose deportation is being withheld under section 243(h) of INA, eligible for five years from date of status;
- Amerasian immigrant under 584 of FOEFRPAA 1988 entered the United States within last five years, participation limited to five years from entry into the United States;
- Is a Cuban or Haitian entrant under section 501(e) of REAA 1980 and entered the United States within last five years, participation limited to five years from entry;
- Honorably discharged veterans their spouses and unmarried dependent children;
- An alien who is active in the United States Armed Forces, other than duty for training, their spouses and unmarried dependent children;
- An alien who is lawfully admitted to the United States on or after August 22, 1996 and has been a qualified alien for more than five years; or
- An alien who is a battered spouse or battered child, the non-abusive parent of a battered child, or a child of a battered parent.
- A veteran, his spouse, or unmarried dependent child
- A member of the United States Armed Forces, his spouse, or unmarried dependent child.

2. Medicaid Eligible Aliens

Medicaid eligibility for aliens is based on the alien being a qualified alien regardless of whether the alien entered the United States before on or after August 22, 1996. An eligible (qualified) alien is one who is:

- An alien who is lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and was admitted before August 22, 1996;
- An alien who is granted asylum under section 208-INA eligible for 7 years from entry to United States;
- A refugee who is admitted to the United States under section 207-INA including immigrants who have been certified by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services to be victims of a severe form of trafficking in persons in accordance with the victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000 (P.L.106-386) eligible for 7 years from entry to United States;
- An alien whose deportation is being withheld under section 243(h) of INA eligible for 7 years from date of status;
- Pregnant women and children 18 and under who are lawfully admitted for permanent residence.