

REASONABLE COMPATIBILITY

This provision is implemented with ACA changes and applies to all Medicaid Groups and WV CHIP. It refers to the process and result of reconciling discrepancies between an individual's self-attestation about his non-financial and financial information and the information reported by the federal data hub, or other electronic data sources available to the Department.

REASONABLE COMPATIBILITY STANDARD

In applying reasonable compatibility to financial information, the standard is the allowable difference in income between the data match income reported and that of the client. The current standard is 10% of the client reported income, arrived at by multiplying the client reported figure by .1. See Chapter 4, Section 4.1.

Examples of these payments include, but are not limited to, Highway Relocation, Urban Renewal and the Army Corps of Engineers.

ROLLING REDETERMINATIONS

A full renewal will be conducted and a new 12-month period of eligibility will be extended whenever a change is reported or review for another program, as long as the applicant continues to be eligible based on all eligibility criteria.

ROYALTIES

A share of the profit from the product of an oil or mineral lease. Also a payment made to an author or composer for each copy of work sold or to an inventor for each article sold under a patent.
