

Science on Our Minds 2001

Please click on titles to view full documents.

Mental Health in America and Worldwide

- > Improving the Nation's Health: The National Institute of Mental Health
- > "...the burden of psychiatric conditions has been heavily underestimated."
The Impact of Mental Illness on Society

Child and Adolescent Mental Health

- > Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder
- > Teenage Brain: A Work in Progress
- > Teens: The Company They Keep
- > Unraveling Autism
- > Youth in a Difficult World

Depressive Disorders

- > Depression Can Break Your Heart
- > Going to Extremes: Bipolar Disorder
- > In Harm's Way: Suicide in America
- > The Invisible Disease: Depression
- > Older Adults: Depression and Suicide Facts

Anxiety Disorders

- > Reliving Trauma: Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder
- > Step on a Crack... Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder
- > When Fear Holds Sway: Panic Disorder

Schizophrenia

- > When Someone Has Schizophrenia

Personality Disorders

- > Borderline Personality Disorder: Raising Questions, Finding Answers

Women's Mental Health

- > Women Hold Up Half the Sky: Women and Mental Health Research

Neuroscience Advances

- > Chairs, Houses & Visual Clutter: Watching the Brain at Work
- > Gene Hunting
- > How Biological Clocks Work
- > Seeing Our Feelings: Imaging Emotion in the Brain
- > Stress and the Developing Brain
- > What We Learned From Songbirds: The Adult Brain Can Generate New Nerve Cells

References

- > References List: Science on Our Minds 2001