Subject: Domestic Violence Webinar Series
To:

WV Birth to Three is pleased to announce an upcoming webinar series focused on supporting families who are experiencing domestic violence. This series will be comprised of four webinars, scheduled May through August of 2022, and will provide you with information critical to understanding domestic violence and responding when a family shares these concerns with you. The WV Coalition for Domestic Violence will be presenting the content for each of the sessions. Attendance in the first two webinars is a prerequisite to attending sessions three and/or four, to assist with the ease of registration, when you register for session one you will be automatically registered for the 4-session series.
