

The West Virginia Autism Training Center is sponsoring a series of meetings for parents of children recently diagnosed (i.e., within the past year) with Autism Spectrum Disorder. These meetings are free, and open to all parents and caregivers of individuals with ASD.

Meetings will be held twice a day for each day scheduled to make it possible for people with differing schedules to attend. The first meeting will be held from 12:00 – 1:30 PM, and the second meeting held that same day from 5:00 – 6:30 PM. All meetings will be held at Marshall University; South Charleston campus.

Registration is necessary to ensure the group is formed of parents, grandparents and other caregivers in the family of a recently diagnosed child. To register, please contact Dr. Catherine Bailey at baileyca@marshall.edu, calling 304-696-2332, or at www.marshall.edu/atc
