Coming Together Around Military Families

works to strengthen the resilience of young children & families who are experiencing trauma, grief & loss as a result of a Service member's deployment . This training will focus on providing professionals who support & care for very young children & their families the knowledge, skills, resources & tools to help nurture the relationships young children have with the significant adults in their lives, whether at home or at war.

Training Topics:

- What Babies & Toddlers Need to Thrive
- Trauma & Stress & Its Impact on Infants & Toddlers
- From a Young Child's Perspective: Reintegration & Reunion
- Developing Activities for Strengthening Connections, at Home & While Deployed

Where:

Schoenbaum
Family Enrichment Center
1701 5th Avenue
Charleston, WV 25312
