WV Birth to Three partners with families and caregivers by offering coordination, support, and resources to enhance their child's learning and development, with a focus on the following domains: ADAPTIVE, COGNITIVE, SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL, MOTOR, HEARING, VISION, AND LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT.

You are the link. If you have concerns, please make the referral to WV Birth to Three.

Relationships and collaboration between medical home and Birth to Three providers

Evidence-based practices are used via coaching model

Familiar people, environments, and routines

Equal opportunities - no cost to families

Refer birth up to 35 months of age

Role of service provider in early intervention is to work with and support family members and caregivers in a child's daily routines

All families with necessary support and resources can enhance their child's learning and development

Law is Part C of IDEA*

You can access WV Birth to Three services and supports by visiting www.wvdhhr.org/birth23/referral.asp or by scanning the QR code on this page.

WV Birth to Three services and supports are provided under Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and administered through the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources, Office of Maternal, Child and Family Health in cooperation with the Early Intervention Interagency Coordinating Council (ICC).