

Completing an AAC Assessment

Course Description: Determining how to complete a comprehensive Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) assessment can be daunting. Join us as we discuss AAC assessment considerations, feature matching, and the stages of completing a thorough AAC evaluation from identifying a candidate to writing a report.

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion, participants will be able to:

- Identify who could be considered a candidate for an AAC assessment
- Discuss the stages of an AAC Assessment
- Match features of an AAC device to an individual’s needs and strengths
- Discuss potential AAC goals based on four areas of competence

This course will be offered for 0.25 ASHA CEUs (Introductory level, Professional Area)
