Part B - School System Contact

Name: _____
Address: _____
Phone #: _____
E-mail: _____

At age three children can no longer receive WV Birth to Three services. Some children will qualify for preschool special education services through the school system. With a parent's consent, the county school system will do an assessment and meet with the parents to determine if the child meets the eligibility criteria to receive services.

Help Me Grow WV

<http://www.dhhr.wv.gov/helpmegrow/>

If your child does not qualify for special education services or Head Start, you may want to consider having your child attend a childcare or a WV Home Visitation program within your county.

The local Resource & Referral (R&R) agency can help locate childcare and sometimes help with paying for childcare.

A wonderful resource to help you track your child's development through developmental screening is Help Me Grow WV.
