March 24, 2020 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm	Beginning the Partnership with Families (2 Contact Hours) Parents and other caregivers are the most important people in an infant and toddler's life. It is the responsibility of the early intervention provider/service coordinator to create a partnership with each family that is based on respect and focused on the identified needs of the family. Join us as we learn to become more family focused in our interactions by reflecting on our own values, beliefs and assumptions, utilizing strong active listening skills and recognizing the strengths that families bring to the partnership.	Family & Community Relationships Professionalism & Leadership TIER - Basic	Theoretical Foundations Infant/Very Young Child & Family-Centered Practice Working with Others Building & Maintaining Relationships
March 24, 2020 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm	Relationship Based Early Intervention Practices (2 Contact Hours) Current research recognizes that children's relationships with their parents and other consistent caregivers are critical to development. Relationship based practices in early intervention are intended to support the parent-child relationship and maximize the learning opportunities therein. This focus requires a change in the roles of professionals, requiring more than competence in one's discipline. This session will explore the components of relationship-based practices, including perspectives on parent-child, parent-practitioner, and practitioner-practitioner relationships, and the skills needed for success in implementation.	Child Growth & Development Family & Community Relationships Environment & Curriculum Professionalism & Leadership TIER - Basic	Theoretical Foundations Relationship-Focused Practice,
