

An Opportunity for WV Birth To Three Providers

- Interested in strategies to strengthen partnerships with families?
- Looking for ways to become more culturally sensitive working with families?
- Wanting to become more familiar with typical and atypical child development?

For more information on the WV Infant/Toddler Professional Development Program, call the Infant/Toddler Specialists at your local Child Care Resource and Referral Agency:

RAU I—Wendy Miller, Child Care Resource Center	1-800-585-1603
RAU II—Alicia Hundley, Choices Child Care Resource & Referral	1-866-966-2668
RAU III—Hallie Swift, Connect Child Care Resource & Referral	1-888-595-8290
RAU IV—Paula Stewart, Link Child Care Resource & Referral	1-800-894-9540
RAU V & VIII—Shannon Nichols, MountainHeart North	1-866-232-9227
RAU VI & VII—Tricia Smith, MountainHeart South	1-866-872-9204

FREE

Join in five interactive weekly sessions:

1. Family Partnerships, Culture, Protective Urges and Transitions—Five Hours
2. Addressing Nutrition, Health and Safety; ADA—Three Hours
3. Typical and Atypical Development; Social Emotional Development—Four Hours
4. Cognitive Development; Language Development Five Hours
5. Physical Development—Four Hours

Must be enrolled in WV STARS to attend. To register for WV STARS go to: www.wvearlychildhood.org

