DHHR Names Virginia Mahan as Legislative Liaison

West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources Cabinet Secretary Rocco S. Fucillo today announced the appointment of Virginia Mahan as the agency's legislative liaison.

"Ms. Mahan's extensive legislative experience and knowledge will be an asset to the department. I am delighted that she has joined my staff," Fucillo said.

Mahan most recently represented Raleigh and Summers Counties as a member of the West Virginia House of delegates, serving from 1997 to 2012.

While there, she was Chairwoman of Legislative Rule Making Review, the Equal Pay Commission and the Committee on Children's Issues. She was an active member of the House Judiciary Committee and then the Finance Committee as well as the House Rules Committee.

In 2006 she received the Woman of the Year in Government Award from the West Virginia Women's Commission's Celebrate Women Program. Prior to her public service, Mahan was an organizer and spokesperson for various nonprofit organizations representing consumer and highway safety interests.

Mahan has lived in Summers County for the past thirty years and currently resides in Charleston.
