DHHR Names Douglas M. Robinson Interim Commissioner for the Bureau for Children and Families

WV Department of Health and Human Resources Cabinet Secretary Rocco S. Fucillo announced the appointment of Douglas M. Robinson as Interim Commissioner for the Bureau for Children and Families. "Mr. Robinson's professionalism, extensive bureau program knowledge and experience and sincere dedication to DHHR's customers will enable him to serve the citizens of West Virginia well. I look forward to working with him in his new role," Fucillo said.

The Bureau for Children and Families administers most of the DHHR family assistance programs such as the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, Child Protective Services and Adult Protective Services.

Robinson began his career with DHHR in 1993 serving in various administrative capacities. He was most recently the deputy commissioner of operations for the Bureau for Children and Families.

Robinson received his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1990 from Fairmont State University and his master's degree in management in 1997 from Marshall University.

Robinson is a Fairmont native and currently resides in Charleston with his wife, Mary Kathren.
