Medical Provider's sentencing orders Medicaid restitution

Angela McCracken of Cowen, WV, was ordered to pay $24,493.60 in Medicaid restitution following her conviction on a healthcare fraud charge. Sentencing also included 1-10 years confinement, suspended, plus five years supervised probation.

McCracken, a residential habilitation service provider, falsified documents causing Medicaid to pay for services not rendered.

Residential habilitation services are provided to low income individuals who are developmentally disabled.

The case was investigated by the WV Department of Health and Human Resources Medicaid Fraud Control Unit and prosecuted in Greenbrier County Circuit Court. The Medicaid Fraud Control Unit investigates healthcare provider fraud and the abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation of vulnerable adults in Medicaid funded facilities throughout all of West Virginia.
