

For more information contact:
Marsha A. Dadisman, Director of Communications
Telephone: (304) 558-7899
Fax: (304) 558-7075

For immediate release

DHHR announces deputy commissioner for Bureau for Children and Families

The West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources, Bureau for Children and Families announces the appointment of Doug Robinson as the Deputy Commissioner for Operations. Robinson will be responsible for finance, human resources, procurement, planning and quality improvement within the Bureau for Children and Families.

Robinson began his career in 1991 as a public servant at the Legislature and then at the DHHR serving in various management capacities. He most recently served as Assistant Commissioner for Finance and Administration for the Bureau for Children and Families.

Robinson earned a Bachelor's degree in business from Fairmont State University and a Master's degree in management from Marshall University.

Robinson resides in Kanawha County with his wife Mary Kathren. They are the parents of three children and six grandchildren.