For Immediate Release

Rocco S. Fucillo Commissioner for the Bureau for Children and Families

Rocco S. Fucillo has been appointed Commissioner for the Bureau for Children and Families. DHHR Cabinet Secretary Michael J. Lewis, M.D., Ph.D. said, "I am pleased to welcome Mr. Fucillo to his new role. Rocco's professionalism and vast Bureau experience will enable him to serve the citizens of West Virginia well."

The Bureau for Children and Families administers most of the DHHR family assistance programs such as the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, Child Protective Services and Adult Protective Services.

Fucillo previously served as DHHR's deputy secretary and assistant attorney general representing the DHHR for more than six years. He is a 1987 graduate of West Virginia College of Law and received his master's degree in law trial advocacy from Temple Law School in 1996. He received his bachelor's degree in 1984 from Fairmont State University.

Fucillo is a Fairmont native and currently resides in Clarksburg with his wife, Andrea Pecora-Fucillo and two stepsons, William and Julian Pecora.
