

A Resolution in Recognition of The Honorable O.C. Spaulding

Whereas West Virginia Circuit Judge O.C. Spaulding served as a founding member of the Commission to Study Residential Placement of Children for seven years, and

Whereas Judge O.C. Spaulding was a faithful contributor and champion for all aspects of the Commission's work, and

Whereas Judge O.C. Spaulding characterized a role-model Commission member by

- Regularly attending Commission meetings
- Always ensuring the positives were recognized
- Being straightforward and honest by speaking respectfully on what was on his mind
- Sharing information with other Judges and following through to make sure it was accurate and timely, and

Whereas Judge O.C. Spaulding always came through with thought-provoking questions or insights that led to better results,

Now therefore be it resolved at this formal Commission meeting on March 22, 2012, that the standing members of this Commission, and on behalf of the hundreds of individuals serving on its working groups, commend and wholeheartedly thank the Honorable O.C. Spaulding for his outstanding service to the Commission and his proven dedication to making a difference in the lives of so many West Virginia children in out-of-home care.

We sincerely wish you all the best in the future.
