Revised February 10, 2025

CONTRACTOR BACKGROUND CHECK AND FINGERPRINTING PROCEDURES

In accordance with WV State Code 15-2D-3, the Director of the Division of Protective Services (DPS) requires any service provider or contractor whose employees are regularly employed on the grounds or in the buildings of the Capitol complex (this includes any State office building) or who have access to sensitive or critical information, to submit to a fingerprint-based state and federal background inquiry through the State repository.

WVDPS Form 12-26 must be completed as instructed and returned to the WVDPS before fingerprints are submitted to IdentoGo.

IdentoGo conducts the checks on behalf of the State of WV and can be found online at: https://www.identogo.com/locations/west-virginia or by calling 1 (855) 766-7746.

Service providers and their employees who are not current residents of the State of West Virginia are required to complete state and federal fingerprint-based background checks at their own expense. The results of state and federal background checks will be returned to and stored by the DPS and will be treated as confidential. According to federal law, any unfavorable results will only be shared by the DPS with the individual whose check results in a rejection of employment.

IdentoGo offers applicants multiple methods for fingerprinting:

- Live Scan Fingerprinting at location nearest the individual
- On-site fingerprinting for groups of 25 or more requires 2 weeks' notice to set up these special print sessions.
- Individuals who do not have access to a scanning location will need to get a hard card print. Fingerprint cards must be sent to the following address:

IDENTOGO CARDSCAN DEPARTMENT 6840 CAROTHERS DRIVE STE 650 FRANKLIN, TN 37067-9929

Individuals will need to include the WV Service Code for Division of Protective Services (located on the WV Service Code Form). Note: It may take several weeks for DPS to receive these backgrounds.

Applicant Background Inquiry

Pursuant to West Virginia Code 15-2D-3 (e), service providers, such as vendors or contractors, whose employees are regularly employed on the grounds or in the buildings of the Capitol complex, or who have access to sensitive or critical information, are required to submit to a fingerprint based criminal history investigation completed by both the West Virginia State Police and Federal Bureau of Investigation. Privacy Act Statement Attached.

Applicants are required to complete this application and forward the same to the Division of Protective Services before fingerprints are submitted at IdentoGo (Idemia). Applicants have the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy contained in the FBI identification record. The procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or updating of your FBI criminal history record are set forth in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.

Applicant's Signature:

NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S PRIVACY RIGHTS

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below. All notices must be provided to you in writing. ¹ These obligations are pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 552a, and Title 28 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 50.12, among other authorities.

- You must be provided an adequate written FBI Privacy Act Statement (dated 2013 or later) when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement must explain the authority for collecting your fingerprints and associated information and whether your fingerprints and associated information will be searched, shared, or retained. ²
- You must be advised in writing of the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your FBI criminal history record as set forth at 28 CFR 16.34.
- You must be provided the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in your FBI criminal history record (if you have such a record).
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the FBI criminal history record.
- If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks and https://www.edo.cjis.gov.
- If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI by submitting a request via https://www.edo.cjis.gov. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)
- You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.³

Written notification includes electronic notification, but excludes oral notification.
